

The Chief Justice and Justices Collier, Rangiah and SC Derrington invite

barristers with a genuine interest in practicing in native title law to express their interest in attending an event to meet solicitors who practice in the area.

The event is restricted to:

- (a) barristers with under three years seniority; and
- (b) barristers with over three years seniority who do not presently practice in native title law.

Numbers for this event are strictly limited.

Any barristers who miss out on this occasion will be given preference for future events.
