

SUPREME COURT OF QUEENSLAND
PRACTICE DIRECTION NUMBER 15 OF 2024

APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION AS A LAWYER – MUTUAL RECOGNITION PRINCIPLE

1. This Practice Direction applies in relation to applications for admission to the legal profession by lawyers who are already admitted in another Australian jurisdiction¹ or in New Zealand, in accordance with the mutual recognition principle.
2. This Practice Direction commences on the date of publication.

The procedure to be followed to apply for admission as a lawyer in accordance with the mutual recognition principle is set out in the Registry's Registry's Guideline for Lawyers Seeking Registration which are approved by this Practice Direction.²

3. For the purposes of r 452(2)(b) of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 (Qld), a Registrar of the Supreme Court may constitute the Court to hear and decide an application for admission to the legal profession made by an interstate lawyer under the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 (Cth)³ or by a New Zealand lawyer under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997 (Cth).⁴

Repeal of former practice direction

4. Practice Direction 27 of 1999 is repealed.

¹ A person who is admitted to the legal profession in another State or Territory of Australia, under a corresponding law to the Legal Profession Act 2007 (Qld), may engage in legal practice in Queensland provided they hold a current local practising certificate or current interstate practising certificate (s 24 of the Legal Profession Act 2007). Such a person is not required to become registered (admitted) in Queensland under the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 (Cth), however they may do so if they wish. The person may, however, be required to give notice to the Queensland Law Society, where s 146 of the Legal Profession Act 2007 applies.

² The Guidelines have been prepared under s 39 of the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 (Cth) (in relation to interstate lawyers) and s 39 of the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997 (Cth) (in relation to New Zealand lawyers).

³ Authorised by the Queensland Parliament by the Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1992 (Qld).

⁴ Adopted in Queensland by the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 2003 (Qld).
