MEDIA RELEASE

CINDERELLA – QUEEN OF THE DESERT

You've heard of Cinderella? You've heard the reference "Queen of the Desert"? But what has one to do with the other?

To find out, you need to buy a ticket to Brisbane Family Law Centre's (BFLC) 2017 Pantomime.

Set in the 80s the panto is a nostalgic look back at all the trends and fads of that time and a great chance to hear all the great hits!

It's been a few years between shows for the panto, but this year the cast (made up of Brisbane's legal fraternity) are back together and raring to go.

The Honourable Margaret McMurdo, Womens Legal Service CEO Angela Lynch and Ann-Maree David, Executive Director of the College of Law have all agreed to throw on their dancing shoes for a good cause.

You should also keep an eye out for these familiar faces in the cast:
Jennifer McArdle, Clare Dart, John Selfridge, Guy Andrew and Matt Taylor

This year, the panto is raising funds for the Women's Legal Service to assist them in their important work helping women and children to safer futures.

All profits raised will help ensure that when a woman reaches out, help is available at the other end of the phone line.

This year's performance will be held at the Princess Theatre, 8 Annerley Road, Woolloongabba on Saturday, 21 October 2017 commencing at 7pm.

Tickets are available at a cost of $50 per person or 10 for $450. You can book them via the website <https://www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=284996> but hurry because they're selling fast and you don't want to miss out.

As in previous years, local businesses and other organizations associated with family law have come on board to sponsor the Brisbane Family Law Centre event. Special thanks go to our Platinum Sponsor, Loyalest and our Silver Sponsors Eagle Street Legal Recruitment and Talent Partners, and BGM Family Lawyers.

To become a sponsor, buy tickets or obtain further details of this fundraiser, please follow this link <https://www.bflc.com.au/panto2017/>.

So come along and support this year's pantomime. You know you want to.
