Dear Colleagues,

It is a pleasure to invite all members and guests to the 2020 Bar Association of Queensland Annual Conference in Brisbane. This year the conference is to be held in conjunction with the Australian Bar Association for the whole of the profession, hosting a range of local, interstate and international speakers.

The two-day conference will address key issues for modern litigation practice and contemporary developments in relation to the law and regulation. The program features specialist sessions in a number of areas, including commercial, criminal, family and administrative law as well as sessions focusing on ethics, practice management and advocacy.

The Conference Committee is to be congratulated on planning this excellent program especially the chairs, Dr Kerri Mellifont QC and Michael Hodge QC who have worked hard to present this comprehensive program.

I also wish to thank our generous sponsors for their continuing support and for the role they play in making the conference such a special event each year.

Rebecca Treston QC

From the President
Australian Bar Association

The ABA is delighted to join with the BAQ in presenting this exciting Conference.

It is an opportunity for the Australian Bar to come together to develop, learn and interact. And to do so with the wider profession in a collegiate setting.

I echo Rebecca's thanks to the Conference Committee for assembling such an impressive list of speakers from many jurisdictions and Courts.

Conferences such as this one have become an important and enjoyable part of the national Bar's calendar. This will continue that fine tradition. I hope to see as many of you in Brisbane as possible.

Matthew Howard S.C.
